“ I remember meeting Marleta about 29 years ago. She and Kyle lived across the parking lot from me. She was like a grandma to my kids and babysat my daughter Stacey along with her granddaughter Sarah. The night before Kyle died my kids Greg, Stacey and I went over to visit and that was the longest Kyle had ever talked to us. I remember Bud was there as well. She was a dear friend to me. Even though Marie and I are about a yr apart I was just as close to her mom. I remember one day she came over to help me change my license plate on my car. The two of us laughed so hard trying to get it loose. She was my walking partner. We went to McKee to walk on a Monday night on the tread mill. My youngest son Casey was born the next morning. Their birthdays were just 6 days apart. She was such a joy to be around. Always willing to share whatever she could. I considered her a good Mom figure as well. You'll be missed Marleta but your with your Lord and Savior now.
