“ To the family, I was taken at the loss of Wayne. We were friends for a long time. We hunted, fished and worked together for a longtime. We were around each othes family all the time as his kids were growing up. Wayne was one of those frieds you never forget ad hate to see leave. He will always have a special place with Marsha and I. God be with you all.

“ My wife and I are very sorry to hear of your loss. Marvin was a great friend and neighbor. We could always count on him to look after our house and animals when we were at work, or out of town. He bush-hogged our pasture many times, asking nothing in return. He took myself along with my brother-in-law, niece fishing at his place in Huntsville a couple years ago, needless to say we had a great time. We will truly miss Marvin.
