“ Mary's smile and great example of what makes a good neighbor are what I remember most. She often showed up on my parents, Bill and Nell Ramsey's, porch with her famous lemon cake to share. It was still moms favorite treat even those last few months she lived, although I used Mary's recipe, she said it was never as good as Mary's. If there was a need Mary was always willing to lend a hand, including taking Alicia to school the months we stayed with mom and dad. I think she and mom are enjoying being together again. I feel so blessed to have known her.

“ Mary and her family were our next door neighbors all my growing up years. She was a wonderful presence in my life and such a loving, positive person. I enjoyed her cooking (not as much as Mom's but her lemon cake was the best ever!) and spent lots of hours in her home with her sons, my good friends, Frank and Matt. She will be missed... Our prayers and sympathy to Doc and all four of you guys.
