“ I spent so many happy times at Aunt Mary's house. She was such a kind, loving person. We will all miss her so much. I can only imagine the joyous reunion in Heaven when she joined so many other loved ones.

“ To the Hix family and my Mother in Law Dee - I was very happy to have met Aunt Mary and most of the Hix family when I traveled there with Rusty many years ago. I was only there a short time but long enough to feel welcomed as one of the extended family. My prayers are with all of you. <3

“ I'm sharing this beautiful tribute written by Mom's granddaughter, Shelly Maxey, who is an amazing and beautiful woman, just like her Grandma.

Like pieces of a quilt, her presence and love is sewn into the fabric of our lives. In our thoughts, prayers, memories and homes, the pieces were perfectly placed creating a beautiful masterpiece she called family and we call memories. Led by the hand of God, sewn by the hands of our mom, the stitches represent the unwavering love she held and taught. With each quilt stitched and gave, it was her way of leaving behind pieces of herself for each of us. Every piece reminding us of her love, patience, understanding, forgiveness and faith. Like her faith in God, her love for us was the size of Heaven itself.***

That was beautiful, Shelly. How blessed you are to have had such an amazing Grandmother. Her love was big enough to encompass even those outside the immediate family. I was one of the lucky ones to have also been blessed by her sweet, calming spirit. Mary treated me just like one of her own when I was growing up. The Hix house was always a welcoming, loving place with never a dull moment! I also have many cherished memories of Mary that I will always hold in my heart.

“ I am blessed to have spent even a little time with my aunt so many miles away. She made and gave me one of my most precious gifts ever, a table top quilt. It has the first line from the Book of Song of Solomon, Chapter 2: "I am the Rose of Sharon, and the Lily of the Valleys." She signed it with embroidery and I will cherish it always. You will be missed, and this world is better having had you in it. My deepest sympathy to my mom, "Sis" and the entire Hix family. Love, Sherry and Ben

Dear Shelly, just wanted to say how sorry we are on the loss of your grandma. I know she was very special to you, you will miss her dearly. Hang on to her memories and cherish them with Timber as the years go by, keep pictures of her up so Timber can see and ask questions. We will keep you in our thoughts and prayers, also your family. Love you sweetie,
