

Mary Kathryn Mobley

January 14, 1938 - June 7, 2024

At age 86, Mary Kathryn Barker Mobley entered eternal life in Heaven on Friday, June 7, 2024. Mom spent her last 14 years in Siloam Springs, Arkansas, living most of her earlier days in Glenpool, Cleveland and Tulsa, Oklahoma. Mary Kathryn was born in Portsmouth, Ohio, on January 14, 1938, to Comer and Margaret Stumbo Barker.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Edward Mobley; both parents; two brothers Ronnie and Ray Barker; two sisters, Patty Zepp and Peggy Horseman.

Mary is survived by her six children: Deborah Milner and husband Alan, of Colcord, Oklahoma; David Mobley of Tennessee; Zina May of Catoosa, Oklahoma.; Tracy Skeen and husband Travis, of Tulsa, Oklahoma.; John Mobley of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.; and Milton Goolsby, her nephew, whom she loved like her son, and his wife Alice (aka Tweety), of Sapulpa, Oklahoma.; four grandchildren: Travis Ray of Texas; Jessica Skeen, of Tulsa, Oklahoma.; Jonathan Bond of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.; Miranda Podest of Florida; two grandnephews: Little Milt and Charley Goolsby, of Sapulpa, Oklahoma.; eight great grandchildren: Berkley and Sawyer Skeen of Texas; Eleanor Rollis of Tulsa, Oklahoma.; Luna and twins Anna and Avery Podest, all of Florida; Elora and Emilia Bond of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; four sisters: Dotty Cooper of Johnson City, Tennessee; Twin sisters, Glenda Bosley of Glen Burnie, Maryland, and Linda Zang, of Ocean City, Maryland; Valerie Daughtery of Bristol, Tennessee; nine nieces and nine nephews, all of the Baltimore area.

Mary enjoyed dancing, playing dominoes and card games of all variety. She quickly learned to play bridge with a group of Siloam ladies. She was a competitive opponent for anyone who wished to take her on and a stickler for game rules. Mom loved to join in the activities and outings from the senior center.

During her time on earth, she embraced Arkansas living with joy and contentment, happy to share companionship with everyone she met. She loved old western movies and reading romance novels. She enjoyed music, attending festivals and listening to the best of guitar and fiddle musicians. She was known to join two bowling leagues at once. Mary considered her Mother's Day weekend trips to Eureka Springs and Branson to be sweet moments spent with family. She retired from Seiscor/Raytheon Technologies after 28 years of service, working as a P.C.B. assembler. Mary was well loved and respected by her friends and coworkers at Raytheon Technologies.

A private family and friends memorial will be held at a later date. To sign the online obituary, please visit: www.wassonfuneralhome.com
