“ I grew up next door to Willard and Mary Edna. I remember as a child going to their home and spending time with them. They were like grandparents to me and I truly treasure the childhood memories of them. Mary Edna was a very fine and classy lady.

“ What a dear friend Mary was to my mother, Dorothy Sykes. They used to talk about fearing that the other would go first, and they did not think they could handle loosing the other. Mary would go to Mom's room and sit with her when Mom was not feeling well. I am happy that they are together again.
Mary was a wonderful lady.

Our love to you all,
