“ Grandma Mary, what can I say? She was a marvel of a women, from her mile high heels (at least that is how I saw them when she used to come visit us in Washington when i was a child) to her take no guff attitude she will be a woman missed by many. Know that her surrogate family up in Washington will miss her dearly and know that we are there on Friday in spirit. Hugs and prayers.

“ Grandma, I loved your strength and true joy in life, the stories you shared - which somehow always made me laugh no matter the subject, card games played and pancakes made into amazing shapes.

I will miss your abundant hugs; I was never too old for them.

We had a wonderful grandma, thank you. And I know you're still keeping an eye on all of us, so we better make sure you like what you see!

“ Mary my friend, my other mother. I will miss you .For all the times we talked about this I was still not ready. Thank You for your help, advice, humor, and most of all for allowing me to be a welcomed family member .Not because you had to, but because you choose to.
