

Mary Elizabeth Murphy

March 1, 1942 - February 13, 2025

Mary Elizabeth Murphy, 61, of Siloam Springs, Arkansas, passed away at home on Thursday, February 13, 2025. Born in Fullerton, California on July 21, 1963, she was the daughter of Kenneth Wells and the late Carol Ann (Harrington) Wells. Mary relocated to Siloam Springs with her son, Patrick William Murphy, two and a half years ago, where she enjoyed her community with warmth and kindness. She was an active member of The Bridge Church in Siloam Springs, where her faith and commitment to others shone brightly. In her free time, Mary enjoyed a range of activities, including crocheting, playing Pokémon Go, and most importantly, cherishing moments with her loved ones. She also worked in the clerical department at CVS, where her dedication and friendly nature were appreciated by all who knew her. Mary's memory will be cherished by her son, Patrick, and all who had the privilege of knowing her. Her kind spirit, love for family, and deep faith will continue to inspire those who remain. She was preceded in death by her mother, Carol Ann Wells; her sister, Diane Myrick.

She is survived by her son, Patrick William Murphy of Siloam Springs, Arkansas; her father, Kenneth Wells of Whittier, California; her brother in law, Tony Myrick of Fort Smith, Arkansas; three cousins, Kimberly Myrick of Fort Smith, Arkansas, Carolyn Chavarria of Fort Smith, Arkansas, and Christopher Myrick of Fort Smith, Arkansas.

No funeral services are scheduled at this time.
