

Maurice Cooper

January 15, 1928 - April 7, 2012

Maurice John Cooper, 84, of Gentry, Arkansas, died April 7, 2012, at Siloam Springs Nursing and Rehab. John was born to Daniel Gerald Cooper and Martha Marie Mohr Copper, January 15, 1928, in San Francisco, California. He was a painter and worked in Washington State before moving to Northwest Arkansas. He married Florence Cypert March 4, 1977, in Seattle, Washington. He was affiliated with the First Assembly of God Church, Gentry.

John was preceded in death by his parents; one son; and one step son.

Survivors include his wife Florence of Gentry; one son, Wade Cooper of Seattle, Washington, three daughters, Nanette Pickens and husband Chuck of Arlington, Washington; Lisa Phillips and husband Rick of Woodinville, Washington, and Linda Cooper of Washington State; one brother, Owen Cooper of Sequim, Washington; two sisters, Jean Heartley of Silvana, Washington, and Janet; one step daughter, Linda Rantz of Ft. Wayne, Indiana; and seven grandchildren.

Memorial services will be 2:00 p.m., Sunday, April 22, at First assembly of God Church, Gentry, with Pastor Kevin Stowe officiating.

Tribute Wall

“ Maurice Cooper

September 19, 2012 at 01:06 PM