“ Dear Don and Family,

It was my honor to conduct the funeral of your wife and mother. We all prayed that she would be healed, and in one sense, she has been. Keep her memories close to your heart. If you need me, please feel free to call me. God bless you all.

“ I guess I would say the last time I talked to Maxine was one day at the grocery store in Siloam..I was chasing a hummingbird..I think she thought I might be a little loco..tho her daughter was helping me chase the little bird too..Maxine was truely loved by her family..Teresa was very devoted to her and loved her very much..Like a mother and daughter relationship. I hope my son is waiting up there in Heaven to greet her and let her be finally in peace. Maxine..Rest in peace you will be truly missed.
