“ Hi Gary,
Sally Rodgers sent me the obituary about Maxine. I am so sorry to hear of your loss.
When I remember your parents, I always have a warm loving memory. They both were wonderful people. I remember the days when your mother would bring you to school at Ward, and stop by our house and pick me up too. Those were the days when they were driving that chartruese Studybaker! I also remember that every time my family would run into your dad in Maysville, he would pick me up and throw me up in the air over his head. He always caught me!
They always had big smiles on their faces and I was always so happy to see them. We need more people in our world like Phillip and Maxine Chastain.
Sincerely,
Linda

“ May you find comfort in the memories that are yours to cherish always, and strength in the companionship of those who share your loss.... May it be a source of inner strength to know that there's a loving God watching over you, and that, throughout this time of need, He'll stay close by your side-Mathew 5:4. All those sleeping in their graves will wake up and sing for joy. As the sparkling dew refreshes the earth, so the Lord will revive those who have long been dead."-Isa. 26:19.
