

Meranda Lee Adams

October 23, 1959 - November 22, 2023

Meranda Lee (Boyle) Adams peacefully passed into the arms of Jesus on November 22, 2023, surrounded by her loving family. Meranda was born on October 23, 1959 in Siloam Springs AR. Those who were lucky enough to know her will remember her creativity, hilarious wit, outstanding talent, and most of all, her love for the Lord and her family. Art, music, plants, and cooking were some of her passions, but what she loved most was being a devoted mother and grandmother.

There was never a dull moment with Meranda. Making people smile came easy to her. Each account of her life weaved together a story of joy, laughter, faith, as well as some hardships. Nonetheless, she never let hard times get her down. Meranda radiated positivity and hope in even the toughest of times. She was a selfless soul; what she really hated was seeing the people she loved unhappy. Unparalleled was her love for all the people, animals, and even plants around her, as well as her desire to follow Christ until her wonderful entrance into the pearly gates.

Meranda was preceded in death by one son, Taylor Wade Ellis, paternal grandparents, GW and Pearl Boyle, and maternal grandparents Rudolph and Fontain Zismann. She is survived by her parents Tiny and Edna (Zismann) Boyle, a brother Earl Boyle, daughter Lacey Dotson and her husband Anthony and grand-daughters Makenzie and Emory (all of Gentry AR). Additionally, one grandson, Gavon of Kansas OK, nieces Cami Asher, her husband Steve and daughter Hailey of Gentry AR and Holly Boyle and her son James of Lincoln AR.

Lovingly written by her grand-daughter Makenzie.

“ This is a beautiful tribute for your Grandmother Makenzie. There are so many things I think about when I think about my cousin Meranda. When I was little, she would babysit me once in a while. My mom said she also took Meranda with her once in a while to help with me, if she had something to do. My mom said Meranda was so protective of me when I was little. When I was little, I didn't have much hair and I was chunky. My mom said every time someone made a remark about my hair or about me being chunky that Meranda would get so defensive. She didn't want anybody talking bad about anybody. I also remember her, putting some make up on me and fixing my hair one time. One other time, I talked her into going to play bingo with me. She did not like it! She said she was never going back, and as far as I know she never did! I went to her a lot when I was younger for advice. We would talk about a lot of stuff. One time I was in the store and someone looked at me and said hi Meranda. I remember being so happy about that, because I thought my cousin was so beautiful and I was glad that someone thought I was her! Even though families don't get together anymore like they used to, I loved my cousin very much and I'm going to miss her. I will not be able to attend the service, but please know in your hearts that I am so sorry for your loss.

“ Our Sweet and Dear Meranda! What a blessing She was to all our family! Such a wonderful person. I Loved her with all my heart. I have so many things I Loved about her and so many wonderful memories of her. I could go on and on. But I know that as sad as we all are right now, that she is at peace and not suffering anymore. Heaven gained a wonderful person!!!! What a sweetheart! Aunt Pat
