

Merna K. Lange

April 22, 1915 - April 19, 2013

Merna Lange, 97, of Siloam Springs, Arkansas, died April 19, 2013, at Siloam Springs Nursing and Rehab. Born April 22, 1915, in Hurdsfield, North Dakota, she was the daughter of Earl Houghton and Pearl Shephard Houghton. She was a member of Hurdsfield, North Dakota Seventh-day Adventist Church and graduated from Hurdsfield High School in 1934. On November 1, 1936, Merna married Jake Lange in Hurdsfield. They lived on a farm near Hurdsfield until they moved to Spokane, Washington. They lived there for 18 years before moving to Siloam Springs, Arkansas. She enjoyed cooking, gardening, and music. She was a loving mother and grandmother. Her children and grandchildren were precious to her.

She was preceded in death by her parents; seven brothers, Verne Houghton, Eddie Houghton, Jack Houghton, Dell Houghton, Gay Houghton, Art Houghton, and Glen Houghton; and one sister, Nona Lester.

Survivors include one sister, Jewell Steele, of Hamilton, Montana; one son, Jerry Lange and wife Harriet of Castle Rock, Colorado; two daughters, Pearl Stabel and husband Wesley of Siloam Springs, Arkansas and Jackie Wren of Siloam Springs; six grandchildren; and 13 great grandchildren.

Merna will be laid to rest beside her husband in Hurdsfield, North Dakota at a later date. To sign the online guest book, visit www.wassonfuneralhome.com.

“ Jackie and Pearl, I am so sorry to hear of Merna's passing. Though Jackie and I have often compared mothers, I know that it is a loss not having her even though her last months have not been good for her; I know that she looked forward to Jesus' return for those who love him. May He who knows all be close to you. Love, Charolette Clegg
