“ Mike was so loveable and caring to all he knew. He loved singing and saying Amen at church. He would sure let you know if you were backsliding. He liked to go bowling and win thropies, and liked fishing if he would catch fish. He loved his family ❤️!

“ Mike was the best little brother that a guy could have. I have all the wonderful memories of growing up with him. He changed our family's life as well as others for the better. I thank the Thrailkill family for all the love and care that they have given him. I will miss Mike but I also know that he is with Jesus. We will meet again.
