“ When I went away to college, I was terrified! I knew I wasn't as smart as my brothers and I didn't think I would make it, in fact, I thought of dropping out my first semester. Enter Mike Staton. He talked to me on the phone and in person many times that first semester. He told me that I was smart, and that I was tough and that I was going to do well in college, he KNEW it! He had faith in me LONG before I had faith in myself. But that is the type of person he was. He did not want to see you be down on your self confidence so he would raise it for you! I have many wonderful memories of Michael but that one stands out. This world is not going to be the same without him. He will be sorely missed! I love you my friend! I will see you again!

“ Mike, you were my True friend. I remember when we became battle buddies at the Drill Sergeant Academy at Fort Leonard Wood. You were a good friend and mentor. When you came back to Fort Leonard Wood as a 1SG, we were able to get a lot closer as our friendship blossomed and we became even closer. I was truly honored to be able to spend many days with you before you passed and the last phone call we had only days before you passed away in one that I will never forget. You were always laughing and no matter what you were going they you always had a big heart and great attitude. I love you Mike, and my heart is truly broken.

“ Oh Mike, where do I start? You were always a wonderful big brother! A protector for sure!! Their are so many memories. From playing hide and go seek and jumping off the barn. You teaching me to drive the stick shift. That's ones I'll never forget!! You threatening some of my guys friends they better never hurt me. From the day you told me you were so proud of me for not having a college education and making a career for myself that requires one. The day you showed up and delivered me a lawn mower because you knew I needed it and times were tough for me. I love you so much Mike!! I will miss our 2 hour long talks. They may have been every couple of months but we would talk for hours! You always called to wish me a Happy Birthday when you could. Yeah we had our rough patch, I won't deny that! But I know you loved me so much! Which ironically is what caused that rough patch. I pray that you are happy and dancing with the angels. Oh and I know you will find a way to prank, because that's what we did best growing up....the Staton pranks that the stories will live one forever. Some of my girls favorite times were talking about all the pranks. I make you a promise that Kai will always know my love and when him and Catherine have a family, your grandchildren will know how much love their Grandpa had! And how much you would have loved them. RIP my Brother!! Until I see you on the flip side, keep things Friggin Awesome and Roll Tide!!!

“ I was one of Sgt. Staton's soldiers at Fort Polk. He was a great leader and I enjoyed being under him. While at Ft. Polk we were assigned to temporary duty at West Point to train cadets. We had such a fun time while there took weekend trips down to NYC. I'm so sorry to hear about the loss of this great NCO and offer my deepest condolences to the family. My God grant you peace and understanding in this difficult time.

“ Michael, my brother. I don't know where to begin. So many memories. You were one of the kindest people I have ever known. I never in my life seen him in a fight. Yet he is the one that served our country in War time like a warrior and a HERO. 30 plus years service. This guy was so smart and intelligent, he didn't even have to study in school. Always head of his class. Like David said it wasn't the events we attended it was the company. The random knocks on my door with him standing there saying whats up man, lets go do something. I miss you Mike, you are the best brother I guy could have. I will always have your back. Although I'm the oldest of us sibilings, Mike was the one I looked up to like the my big brother. I love you Mike, one day we will see each other. Until then thank you for being my brother and friend, a Hero and a great father to an amazing Son. Salute.

“ My brother, my friend, my teacher, my trusted confidant, my counselor, my hero. Our Early years were filled with so much innocence, joy, love, mischievousness, wonder, and dreams. As time went by we learned about life, experienced things, learned of the ups and downs that life throws. We leaned on each other and helped one another through difficult days. We discovered our passion together, to give, protect, and defend. We shared our deepest and darkest secrets and we talked through our most difficult times. We celebrated our successes together, bragged on our kids non stop, and rooted each other on. We made it a point to never be too far away or too busy that we couldn't be together and we found excuses to do so. It wasn't the football games that we went to that we're important, it was our time together. It wasn't the air shows, it was time with my bro. And we served together in a combat environment...few will ever know or feel that feeling of having your brother with you when the alarm goes off, and the shit hits the fan..but we did. You're the smartest guy I've ever known and the most patriotic, selfless and no BS soldier there was. Few will measure up. What happened to you is not right and I won't let it go. Rest in peace Michael, I love you with every ounce of my soul.

“ SFC Staton, it was a pleasure to work with you and to have known you. My first impression of you was that you had a tough exterior but in time after getting to know you realized you were a very lively person that was just very passionate about always getting the job done. The last time I saw you I remember you came down to our shop and offered eggs you had farmed and told us a little bit about your animals. To the family, I am truly sorry for your loss. Rest In Peace.

“ We salute your veteran. Our condolences for your loss & gratitude for your loved one's service to our country. May your memories & God's love bring you peace, comfort & strength at this difficult time. Death leaves a heartache no one can heal but LOVE leaves a memory no one can steal.

Death takes the body. God takes the soul. Our mind holds the memories. Our heart keeps the love. Our faith lets us know we will meet again someday.
