“ Vivian:

We are so sorry to hear about Mike, you both were such sweet people and good friends to us at church. I just told that story the other day about Billy going all the way to the front of the church that wed night sitting beside you thinking it was me and then Mike teasing Billy from then on about trying to move in on his wife while he was teaching a class. We pray for sweet peace and comfort that only our God can bring. Love you Gail

“ My mother Rheba and Step-Dad, Frank Ramsey were friends with Mike for years. He was always in touch with them over the years...and worked with Frank in the Fire Department. I left Oklahoma years ago but Mike was always held in my parents' hearts I believe and I will never forget him as well. So sorry for this loss. I would certainly attend his services if I were there.
