

Mildred Rakes

November 29, 1904 - October 25, 2005

Mildred Margaret Rakes, 100 year-old resident of Centralia, Washington, died October 25, 2005, at Liberty Country Place, Centralia, Washington. Born November 29, 1904 in Elm Springs, Arkansas, she was the daughter of Albert S. Carson and Ada Elizabeth Aaron Carson. She was a homemaker. Survivors include one son, Calvin Eugene Rakes of Eugene, Oregon; one daughter, Mary Louise Coberly of Chehalis, Washington; two grandchildren, Steven Rakes of Granby, Missouri, and Phyllis Lund of Chehalis, Washington. Funeral services will be 2:00 p.m., Tuesday, November 1, 2005, at Wasson Memorial Chapel, Siloam Springs, Arkansas, with Rev. Doug Brown officiating. Burial will follow at Barron Cemetery, Vaughn, Arkansas. Visitation will be 12:00 to 2:00 p.m., prior to the service, at Wasson Funeral Home, Siloam Springs, Arkansas.

Tribute Wall

DR

“ Mildred Rakes

Danny Bert and Deanna Rakes - September 19, 2012 at 11:32 AM

KF

“ hello eugene, mary louise,

so sorry to hear about your mother. i miss you guys and will dearly miss her too. we go back a long ways, i still have the little hair barrett tha you gave me for my sixth bithday, every time i see it, i think of you. love and prayers, love karen sue.

karen sue fagala - September 19, 2012 at 11:32 AM