“ Mrs. Robertson was a very nice and considerate person. I first met her in 1978 when my father and I moved in across the street. She was always friendly and fun to talk with. After I moved out and my father still lived across from her, she was still a friend and would help keep an eye on my father to make sure he was OK. Over the years, I didn't get to see her much, but she would still call me if she was worried about my father. She will be missed dearly by family and friends.

“ Jeanette and family,

Linda let me know about your Mom. I am so sorry. For a lot of years she was like a second Mom to me. I treasure the years of friendship and all the week-ends she put up with me.

*Love and prayers,
Anna*

“ Mildred Robertson was the mother of my best friend, Jeanette, who has been my friend for many years. Her mother, Mildred, became my second mother throughout the years. I fondly remember the days and nights I spent visiting in her home and the camping trips I went on with them. She was an accomplished seamstress and designed and made many beautiful quilts. I have several which I will always treasure, just as I treasure the fond memories of time spent with Mildred, Jeanette, Kay Neal and family when they lived here in Marion, Kentucky.
