

Mildred Wallace

August 26, 1917 - March 11, 2010

Mildred Louise Wallace, 92, of Fayetteville, Arkansas, died March 11, 2010, at Fayetteville City Hospital. Born August 26, 1917, in Marion, Kansas, she was the daughter of Jeremiah William Harris and Constance Emma Fish Harris. She was a member of the Home Demonstration Club and Mason Valley Baptist Church. Mildred was a homemaker. She was preceded in death by husbands Rudolph Herbel and Robert Wallace. Survivors include one daughter, Joyce Hatch of Fayetteville, Arkansas; and one sister, Fern Regier of Olathe, Kansas. Memorial services will be 2:00 p.m., Wednesday, March 17, 2010, at Gentry Cemetery, Gentry, Arkansas.

Tribute Wall

HD

“ Have wonderful memories of Aunt Mildred when she lived with us in Nebraska.

---

Haold & Janett Deines - September 19, 2012 at 11:26 AM

DD

“ Joyce Sorry for the loss of your mother.
It is a very big loss for the Herbel family. We all loved Aunt Mildred and will miss her even though we never got to see her much. Thinking of you Joyce and sending our love. Love Bonnie

---

Duane & Marlene Deines - September 19, 2012 at 11:26 AM

DS

“ Joyce I am so sorry to hear about your mother. it is so hard when someone you love so much is taken from you. All the love and all the wonderful memories you have of her, may they help with the pain of being without her.
we will be thinking of you

---

Darlene Siebert - September 19, 2012 at 11:26 AM