“ *Butch and my dad Frank Cook we're best friends since the 70's
The stories both of them told about their shenanigans. At least we know they're together again in heaven today.
I pray for your family,I know how hard this is.
My heart felt sympathy

“ I counted it a great honor to have Butch, as a special friend and Brother in Christ when he attended our church, Wyandotte Tabernacle. He was amazing in his strength and balance on his unicycle. We all loved to be around him with his great sense of humor. He loved his walk with God and the fellowship he had with his Wyandotte Tabernacle family. He very much loved his wife Evelyn and family and often would request prayer for them at church.

Deepest, Sincere Sympathy to all of you and your family,

“ Butch was like a second dad to me. His daughter Tina and I are best friends and have been since 4th grade. I spent alot of time with her family. Butch was always so happy, and kind. He had the best sense of humor, so he always had us laughing. He would do anything for you. Although we will always miss him, heaven gained a true angel.
