“ Craig, Melody and family...so sorry to learn of this passing. She was a lovely person - always kind, always caring. Am so sorry for you to have lost both of the Taylors in such a short amount of time. You will be in my thoughts and prayers.

*Fondly,
Allen*

“ Dear Craig & Melody, I enjoyed getting to know both your parents over the last couple of years as your dad faithfully brought Mona to Curves. We enjoyed talking about growing up in Iowa, their courtship, and their love for their family. I saw them walking hand in hand in Wal-Mart not long before Ervin passed away and I felt compelled to follow them for another dear conversation, not knowing it would be our last. So thankful to have known them. Our prayers are with you. Sincerely, Diane & Mark Willits

“ Looking at the photo here, I see Irvin's shoulder there beside her pretty smile, and I can't think of one without the other. I'm so happy for them both to be able to think of their being reunited this morning. They were a wonderful couple blessed with many dear friends and a loving family. Craig, Melody, and children, and grands: Sympathy, love, and prayers for you all! Roxana Morrill (for Jim, too!)

Mona was such a precious lady. I have fond memories of her working out at Curves at age 91. I also enjoyed my few weeks taking care of her and hearing all bout her life. She will be missed. Margaret Paulzine

“Mona was a very sweet lady! I will always remember Taylors as our first Arkansas neighbors and wonderful friends. She was always on the arm of the "one she loved" and had a bounce in her step. What a beautiful lady! She gave much love and will be missed.
