

Nadine Mae King McKinney

October 24, 1913 - October 23, 2012

Nadine Mae King McKinney, 98, passed away on October 23, 2012, at her home in Springdale.

Born on October 24, 1913, in Springtown, she was the daughter of Elbert Carruth King and Nancy Mae Holland King. She graduated from Siloam Springs High School in 1931. Nadine married Mearl Robert McKinney in Siloam Springs at the First United Methodist Church on September 18, 1938. They joined Central United Methodist Church in Fayetteville on September 25, 1938 and remained active members there for most of their lives. At Central, Nadine participated in the choir, the women's ministry, and the altar guild. She was also active in the Fayetteville community as a volunteer with the Charity League, the Girl Scouts, and was a member of PEO.

Her husband Mearl preceded her in death. She is survived by a son, M. Robert McKinney, Jr. of Claremore, OK; a daughter, Martha Nan Medley and husband Larry J. Medley of Gainesville, VA; and five grandchildren, Melissa and Megan Medley, and Powell, Todd and Sam McKinney.

A family memorial service will be held Monday, October 29 at 10:00 a.m. at Wasson Funeral Home in Siloam Springs, with Rev. Gary Lunsford officiating. Graveside services to follow.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the music fund of Central United Methodist Church in Fayetteville.
