“ I worked with Nadine, and got to know the incredible, fun, and inspiring person she was. We had so much fun together, and you couldn't ask for a better friend by your side and praying for you when she wasn't. My deepest condolences to the family, and prayers during this difficult and grieving time. Her special spirit will be missed by all that knew what a wonderful lady she was, and had the incredible pleasure of meeting such an inspiration.

“ I'll never forget the night Melanie and I came home from a basketball game and there was an older woman standing at the end of our driveway. She was very cold and confused but determined to 'go home'. One call to Nadine and she knew exactly who it was. In no time she came down the hill to our house and picked the lady up.

Lush and all the kids, so sorry for your loss.

“ I have so many memories of Nadine from my childhood with Huey, Carmen and the boys. She was little but so mighty! She did what it took to raise her 5 kids pretty much on her own. Her prayers were the best and she always made sure her kids were in church. God bless you Nanny, til we meet again! Love you!
