“ We are so sorry to hear of the death of Aunt Joyce. She was a special lady and will be dearly missed by all who knew and loved her. She had such a sweet and strong spirit, and now has gone on to join her husband where there is no pain, or suffering anymore.

Our thoughts and prayers are with you all. May Heavenly Father keep his loving arms wrapped around you during this hard time in your lives.

“ I have "fun" memories of Joyce as Cia and I used to run around in high school. She was always so warm and welcoming. I had a good visit with her several years ago, and she had not changed a bit! Cia, I am sorry your heart is hurting like it is right now...losing our moms is so difficult.

*Just know I am thinking of you and your family.

“ Instead of friend, I could easily have said, "other daughter." Growing up next door was a blessing when I think of all the wonderful times spent in the Pittman home. She was the mother of my best friend, Marcia. I know that God is good all the time, and I pray that he will comfort Cia and Twyla, and all the family during this difficult time. It's comforting to me knowing that Gene and Diva and Morris and Joyce are neighbors once more.

“ "Nanny" was such a great woman! She was always so friendly when she came to visit her granddaughter Tamara (my friend) and was a pleasure to be around. My heart is heavy for her family during this time and my prayers and thoughts are with you all. May she rest in peace.
