“ *Charlie, I was so sorry to hear of the passing of Joan. Since I'm not working anymore and rarely would see you all, I had no idea about her health issues. I pray God will comfort you and your family, and that time will help with the healing process. Just be comforted in the fact that one day you will see her again. My sincere sympathy to

*Dear Charlie and family, Word cannot express the sadness we feel for you and your family. Your lives will be so different now, but remember Joan is sleeping waiting for her Lord to wake her. God will comfort and strengthen you each day. When the hard days come turn to the God of all comfort for He is there 24 hours a day 7 days a week. God bless you
