“ We are sorry that we were not be able to attend her services. She was always a special aunt for us. Whenever she would come out to Colorado to see her parents in Vona, we would often get a chance to visit with her and really enjoyed that time with her. She was such a pretty lady and will be missed by all.

“ *Dear Bill, Cheryl, Levi and Charlene:
The memories I have of your mother have always been wonderful. The times we were in your mother's home with different 4-H projects and the laughter that always surrounded the events. Cherish and hold on to those memories you have. My prayer will be that you will feel our loving Lords strength, comfort, grace and mercy through this difficult time. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all.
