“ Sister Sue Burden was one of a kind. Her life was devoted to the Lord and to His work. I am the beneficiary of her love, her songs and her teaching. I will miss her dearly but will always be grateful for her love and the relationship we shared in the last months of her life. When we see her again, she will be living all that she sang about here. "Won't we have a time!"

“ I am so sorry for the loss of your mother, grandmother, sister, friend. Due to the similarity of our names, I have had calls and messages from some of my friends and acquaintances. I have tried to handle these with honor and respect since I am sure some of them probably knew your Norma. Again, I am so sorry for your loss.
