

Norma "Cookie" Fields

October 18, 1943 - August 25, 2018

Our mom, Norma (Cookie) Fields, would like to let you know that God thought her work here is done. To all the people who knew our mom, she was surely missing her family and friends in Heaven. So when God asked her to come just by His promise of no more pain she accepted. In Heaven she will be socializing, dancing, fishing, catch and release only of course, and playing Heaven's lotto tickets where each one is a winner. The food is amazing and unlimited, better than Carnival's and you never even gain an ounce. Even though our mom didn't know God when she was a child, she made certain all her children did. She left behind some detailed instructions to her family and friends... "Love God, love each other and be happy." This is what she wanted for everyone.

She leaves behind six children and their spouses...Lily Soto of Siloam Springs, Arkansas; John and Astrid Soto of Siloam Springs, Arkansas; Nancy and David Bailey of San Antonio, Texas; Michelle and Mark Laird of Springdale, Arkansas; Tina Marie Hitcher of Fayetteville, Arkansas; Chris and Jennifer Fields of Pottsville, Arkansas; and over 60 grandchildren and great grandchildren; a sibling Luis (Billy) Vasquez of Camden, New Jersey and several cousins, nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be 2:00 p.m., Tuesday, September 4, 2018 at Wasson Funeral Home, Siloam Springs. Burial will follow at Bell Cemetery in Watts, Oklahoma. Visitation will be from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m., Monday, September 3, 2018 at Wasson Funeral Home, Siloam Springs.

“ I loved seeing her daily when I would deliver meals to her while she was in Fayetteville. She reminded me a lot of my mom who passed away. I enjoyed the visits I had with her and will remember her with love.

“ I have known Cookie since I was a kid but recently we intersected in our life paths again. One night we were driving back from picking up her new dog and she said "ya know this is really weird! I have always been the older one and you the younger. We have lived the same lives in different ways and we like the same things. Now you are just Sharon, My friend!" We started spending time together almost every day. We laughed like schoolgirls. We shared secrets and we went on adventures. We sometimes even cried together over something going on in our lives or that had happened long ago. We both had a lot of health issues going on and we understood each other on that level too.

She was going to teach me to make her burrito supremes but she got in a hurry and made most of them before I ever could get there...lol

The transition into this latest friendship just seemed so pure and natural. There was never any expectations going either way because we knew neither of us could predict what we could physically do the next day.

This hurts! I KNOW if it hurts me this much that you, her family, are feeling it so much more! Lots of love prayers and hugs sent your way. Nothing compares to the loss of a mother. My heart goes out to you all! May you find comfort all around you in the exact moments that you need it from the most unexpected places.

Cookie, my dear friend, I love you and will miss you much!
