“Josie and all the family,

Vicki and I just returned from a trip on Sunday and didn't know about your loss until catching up on the papers this morning. Our thoughts and prayers are with each of you and so sorry that we could not be there with you this week-end.

I have so many fond memories of Oral and the rest of the Gentry gang over the past 50 years. The size of the gang continues to diminish, but the memories never will. It was such a pleasure to know Oral as a friend for those many years. May peace and fond memories be with each of you.
