I loved you PA so very much. I thank you for loving me in return. You had a piece of my heart from the day I was borned and that piece still exist today. I named my baby boy after you because I wanted him to be just as kind, gentle, loving, and caring as you always were to me. The stories you told me of you caring for me when I was a baby still linger in my heart and your laugh is always in my soul where I will forever cherish it. I pray that you knew how important you were to me and still are. I wish I could have told you one last time how much having my "Pa" in my life meant.....it's one of my cherished memories and times. Please watch over me as you always did and watch over my sweet babies that you loved so much. Heaven is a sweeter and happier place with you there. Until we meet again Pa.....forever in my heart and soul.your loving grand daughter Dalea Denise
