“ When I was little...I remember seeing this bigger than life man at church that I was so completely scared of. I know...how could I have been scared of Pat? I must have gotten over it, because Pat turned out to be one of the coolest 'dads' I knew.
Roy...I don't get see you much ,but you were and always will be a great friend! My heart breaks for you, Tina and Mike. I pray that God will be with you and help you all through this. If you need anything...I am always here for you!

“ Tina, Roy, and Michael

Pat was far more than our uncle; he was family. He was our brother and our faithful friend. We loved him and we love you. No words can express our deep sense of sadness for someone who was so dear to all of us. We pray that every memory will be sweet and that all your friends and family will be a comfort to you. Remember, Tina, that you are never alone?God is always with you.

“ Tina,
Our line of love is connected gently to you through this time of grief. Pat will remain connected to you as well. We know the love you two shared will be as strong as the love God will always have for you. He will lift you up and carry you even though you feel you have no more strength. Trust in Him, He guides us never ending!! We love you Tina! You are our sister in love.
