

Patsy Freeman

March 11, 1930 - November 25, 2017

Patsy Mae Freeman of Siloam Springs, born March 11, 1930, passed away on November 25, 2017. She was the daughter of Herbert and Bertha Massey and wife of Max W Freeman, Jr. She moved with her family to Siloam Springs in the mid-1940's where she became an all state basketball player during her high school years. She briefly attended college on a basketball scholarship but returned to Siloam Springs to start her life with future husband Max. She worked many jobs but most notable were telephone operator, accountant/bookkeeper in the many family businesses, substitute teacher, and finally Southside Elementary School secretary for nearly 20 years. She was preceded in death by her parents, brother Bill Massey, sister Jerry Wilmoth, and husband Max. She is survived by her son Donald and his wife Susan of North Little Rock and her son Robert and his wife Sandy of Fayetteville. There will be a public graveside ceremony on Thursday, November 30, at 11 am, at Oak Hill Cemetery. The family wishes in lieu of flowers that donations be made to the Siloam Springs High School Scholarship Fund or The Broyles Foundation for Alzheimer's Support.

“ What a sweet lady! Though I didn't see much in recent years, I have nothing but lovely memories of Patsy through most of my life: her great sense of humor, ready and constant smile, her true gift for encouragement and friendship. Heartfelt sympathies to you who loved and knew her best; prayers for your comfort through your faith and sweet memories.

“ While we hadn't met Patsy, we do know her son, Bob, extremely well. Based on Bob's character, work ethic, and personality, we instinctively know that Patsy was a wonderful person and an incredible mom. We send our deepest sympathies to Don, Bob, and their families. God bless.

“ Patsy was my mentor as I worked alongside her for 5 years at the Southside Elementary Office. She was like a 2nd Mom to me, one who helped me grow into a real adult, helped me navigate the first few years as a wife and loved me all the while. I am so grateful to her for all she taught me and how she loved me. What a lady and how fortunate I was to be in her life.
