“ Being away from Siloam Springs for most of my adult life, I remember Siloam Springs in faces. Mrs. Avery was a prominent face - because she was so involved with school activities. Whether she was substituting a Southside Elementary, junior high or high school class or working a concession stand or collecting money at the football stadium or basketball arena, she always had a smile on her face. I saw her not too long before she passed at the public library. I knew she had back pain, yet she still smiled. And even though there were a lot more students than there were Patty Averys, she still remembered me by name.

Thanks for sharing her with us, Niki and Steve. Two years later, I still think about her when I think of Siloam Springs.

“ My family bought land from Cotton and Patty in 1980 and became neighbors. She was my second mom in junior high and high school. I frequently got a ride home from school with her and very much enjoyed my time with her. I have fond memories of sitting at the kitchen counter talking about life while the sweet tea brewed. I found a place of retreat in their home when I needed a break from sharing a room with a foster sister. She offered great hospitality (especially her cooking!!!!) when I visited after moving away from the area. I regret I didn't get one last visit. I'd been looking for opportunities that last 2 years. She will be missed! My deepest condolences go out to Steve, Niki and family.

“ Although I never got to know Patty well, I have a great memory of her. When Ashley was in my 3rd grade classroom, Patty came, in her red hat, and read to our classroom. The students and I were so impressed with her and enjoyed the time. Pretty certain she made many lifelong memories for people's lives she touched. Sorry for your loss; but rejoicing for her life and her eternal home where one day she can greet each of you she loves!
