“ Jack and I have known each other all of our lives. It has been a pleasure being friends and at one time his pastor. Now Jack is enjoying the comforts of his new home.

“ Tammy and I have been neighbors with Jack for over thirty years. Jack did a lot of walking around the neighborhood. In the summer, Jack would hear me mowing my field. He would walk down to my house, I would turn the mower off and we would visit for awhile. Jack had many stories to share and I always enjoyed our visits. Jack was a great guy and we will miss him. Rest in peace my friend.
