“Sid and the family: It was such a great pleasure to know Pauline and so many members of her family. It was always a happy time to see her in and out the doors of her beauty shop when she was located above our newspaper, The Interstate News. I recall so well her loyalty to her clients, even during the 100 year flood of the '70's in Siloam Springs. I went to get her into her car and all of her patrons, and she commented, "I can't leave until I've done the hair for all these ladies." I convinced her to leave in her car with me behind her, but with the water already up above the car tires, she refused to run the red light as it appeared on the way to higher ground. She was a beautiful lady--a jewel.

“ Dear Sid and family...A lovely era of days gone by has truly ended with the death of your sweet mother. I am truly sorry that she is gone from this Earth, but, I know she will always be in your hearts...mine too...

Her calls & visits to Frankie in St. Augustine always uplifted my mother...they were such dear friends...I can still hear their laughter at times!!! Perhaps they are together again...

Love, Judy
