“ *Peggy Ann (never Margaret!)
How cruel to have you leave so slowly over the years until we need to look way back to remember who you really were. As a little girl I watched you and Bobbye, Bobbysoxers, in awe. You and she taught me "Little Orphan Annie" and brought me to school to show me off. Every child needs to feel special and important, and you were someone who did that for me. And I'm sure you did that for others, too. I'll remember you as a proud young mother, or you and Bill around the kitchen table with Aunt Opal, laughing until you cried. You in your beautiful home on my last visit when you were still able to live there. I said I liked a little frog figurine; like it? It's yours! Generous, energetic, creative, witty, welcoming. You in your studio with your vibrant paintings all around you.
Love you, Peg -- always did, always will.*

“ I will always remember my mischievous pranks I played on you as a child, in particular when you would come home from your dates. I would sneak out of the house, climb up on the back of your date's vehicle to see if your date was giving you a goodnight kiss. Unfortunately, you would always catch me. My family and I waited patiently for you and your family's visits to Nashville and Phoenix to see us. Those are cherished memories. I was in awe of your artistic talents and feel blessed to have had the privilege of calling you my sister. Will miss you deeply. Love you, Sis. Billy, Marcy and family.

“ Of the few opportunities I had to visit when younger, Aunt Peg has and will always be one of the most vibrant and cherished memories of those fleeting moments. When I look back, she was smiling, laughing and ensuring that I, and those around me, were happy and all together enjoying each other's company. And of course, her wonderful artistic talent inspired me then as as it continues to do so now and onward. Aunt Peg will be missed and forever in our hearts and memories. My thoughts and prayers to all during this time. Kirk and Family.

“Peggy was a fine artist, friend, who opened her heart and home to fellow artists. Bill and Peggy were generous hosts. Peggy did a lot of "inviting", while Bill caught the fish and fried them! Many memories of happy occasions. Jo
