“ Our love goes out to you as you grieve for your little son. The name, "Trey" is so significant. May God continue to comfort you as you turn to Him in your sorrow. Grandpa Mike would have loved being with the little guy, just as he loved being with Alex. Please know we love you, Jennifer, and your husband, as well, because of his connection to you, even though we've never met him. Hang onto your faith as you raise Alex and Michael and give them the opportunity to know Christ by taking them to Sunday School as they grow up. A church is a wonderful anchor and instills in children a love for God that will never fade as they mature into adulthood.

“ I am deeply sorry to hear of your recent loss. Please allow me to share a thought from the Bible, that has comforted me in my time of loss. Some people feel that God "takes" those that we lose in death. However, it is hard to imagine a God , whose main quality is Love (1 John 4:8) would takesuch a prized possession from us. But, the Bible gives us a hope for those who have "fallen asleep in death"-(1 Thessalonians 4:14). At Revalation 21:4 we are told : " And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore the former things have passed away". Isn't that such an amazing hope for the future? A time when we will no longer have to worry about, or deal with death. This is a promise that Jehovah God has made to us. And what a loving provision that is. Jesus also spoke of a "Ressurrection" in the Gospel Accounts. At John 5:28,29 Jesus said;"Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in their memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". Also at John 11:25, Jesus said to his mother:" I am the ressurrection and the life, he that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." Isn't that so comforting to know that if we obey God's commands, and follow in Christ Jesus footsteps,it can mean our everlasting life, both for us and for those who have "fallen asleep in death." I hope these words and thoughts from the Bible have brought you some comfort. This message is not meant to push our beliefs. However, we find that many people we talk to, are comforted to know about the promises that God's Word, the Bible holds out for the future. We have a Bible based Brochure entitled "When Someone You Love Dies." This Brochure takes you to your copy of the Bible and explains in greater detail questions that many people often think of. Some of these topics include: Why do we grow old and die? Why do we inherit sin and death? What happens to us when we die? If you would like to obtain a free personal copy of this Brochure, please contact your local Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses. You may also write to: The Watchtower Bible and Tract Society 25 Colombia Heights Brooklyn, NY. 11201-2483 Sincerely,

“ *Trey:
You came into our lives like a flickering candle whose flame shines brightly but for a brief moment for all to see, before it silently fades away. I know the angels must rejoice daily to have babies such as you in heaven, and there must be an angelic glow around those such as yourself. You will forever leave an empty ache in my heart for the child you might have been, but I need not worry for when I think of papa I will see you lying sweetly in his arms.
Forever you will be Remembered and Forever you will be Loved. I know that I will hold you again someday.
I Love You, NANA*

“ *Trey,
We are so sad that we did not get to meet and hold you before you left us for a heavenly place. We look forward to the day we will get to. As soon as you're big enough I know Grandpa Mike will take you fishing. Until then, hugs and kisses have been ordered up for you to the nursery staff.
Arlen, Jenny and Alex,
We are so sorry for the sadness you have come to know by this loss. There are no words that "comfort" us even though that's what we always try to offer and accept at times like this. Because of our own experience with grief we know you will forever carry him in your hearts. Our love and prayers go out to you. Love, Roger & Andrea*
