“ *Becky you will be missed each & every day...My childhood memories almost everyone includes you. Always the 5 of us, until Amy came along..then 5 plus 1 spoiled baby... We had great times, Camping, fishing, water skiing, We did it all together..Grandpa & Grandma Knowles were very Brave to take us all..We went school shopping together, most of the time we chose the same clothes.. You were with me when I learned to drive, we were on McHenry in Mom's little VW..it died we were stuck in the turning lane Crying...Lets not forget all the times we had sleepovers..two in a bed, one at the head of the bed the other at the foot of the bed...always good times. So many wonderful memories to list, You were part of every event in my life, one way or another..Birthdays, Graduation, our weddings, our children, Grandchildren & our family
Becky I love you with all my heart, which is breakingI know your in a better place, pain free, Dancing with Uncle Larry, getting hugs from Grandpa calling you Sug...
Rest for now little cousin, because we will all be together again...and you know what our Family is like all together !!
I love you Becky
Love Karen*

“ To Becky family I want you to know she will be missed. Please take advent to remember the times she made you smile or those moments you couldn't stop laughing together. Cry together because I know with out Becky a piece of your life will feel empty. But know she has made her mark in our world. May God please be with your family. Dianna Brown McGill (Charlie Brown)
