“ *Martin,
You have our sympathy in the loss of your father. Mary and me have both lost our fathers.*

It is wonderful that your father prayed for each of you the night before he dies. That is a wonderful blessing.

If you need someone to talk to or go out for coffee or something in the days to follow, please contact me.

May God bless you and your family,

“ As far as I can remember Uncle Martin always understood both Good Friday and Easter. While we are sad and will miss him, we are none the less glad that he has finished the race and will be celebrating this Easter face-to-face with the Risen Lord. Uncle Martin's commitment to his faith and to his family stand as his towering accomplishments in our minds, even as they rest on God's grace. This comes with our sympathies to Aunt Zelda and to cousins Martin, Paul, Daniel, Stephen, and Joel, and all.
