

Rex Elder

June 29, 1938 - December 19, 2010

Rex Lee Elder, 72, of Siloam Springs, Arkansas, died December 19, 2010, at Regency Hospital of Northwest Arkansas. Born June 29, 1938, in Gentry, Arkansas, he was the son of Darrell Elder and Ethel Bayley Elder. Rex was a lifetime resident of Northwest Arkansas, and was owner/operator of The Life Insurance Shop and Rex Elder Realty, both in Gentry. He enjoyed golfing. He married Sandra Gunter on September 29, 1964. Survivors include his wife Sandra of the home; one daughter, Mary Lea Elder of Centerton, Arkansas; one brother, Les Elder of Maysville, Arkansas; and three sisters, Shirley Jane of Kansas, Oklahoma, Carol Guimarin Zotti of Denver, Colorado, and Una Dawdy of Cave Springs, Arkansas. Memorial services will held at a later date.

Tribute Wall

KS

“ Sandy: Though I never had the opportunity to be well-acquainted with Rex, from the time we were all very young, I enjoyed his personality-- there were not many smiles equal to his in Northwest Arkansas. He must have been one of the friendliest people I've known.

I send you and your daughter my best wishes.

From an old friend, Keith

Keith Sutterfield - September 19, 2012 at 01:09 PM

CM

“ You and your family are in our prayers. We enjoyed getting to no Rex when he was our insurance man for many years. God Bless

Carol Crown Moore - September 19, 2012 at 01:09 PM

MB

“ Sandra, so sorry for your loss. I've enjoyed the friendly hello's from Rex the past couple of years as I've been mowing the lawns. I will miss those short positive greetings. I know you've had it difficult with him, healthwise, for quite a while. He's resting in peace, now, waiting his wonderful resurrection at Christ's 2nd coming.

Blessings and peace to you and your family.

Love,

Mark and Sandra Barnett

Mark Barnett - September 19, 2012 at 01:09 PM