“ I’ve never actually met this family, but they’ve provided me with many laughs over the years. You see, Esta Faye Shepherd contacted Phil and Brent at KMOD radio several years ago to orchestrate a crank call to Richard’s Cafe. Well, it was recorded as it took place on live radio, and that particular call was released on a Roy D. Mercer album shortly thereafter. Listening to Sandra and Debbie was hysterical! Thank you for making me laugh so many times, even during tough seasons. There’s no telling how many lives you all have touched. I’d love to meet you someday if I ever travel through northwest Arkansas. My heartfelt condolences for your loss... take care and God bless.

“ Uncle Richard and Aunt Sandra gave me my first job as a dishwasher at Richards Cafe. I always loved the days he made goulash, I loved that stuff so much. If I was lucky there would be leftovers and I could take them home. He also made the best cheeseburger in town, fondly referred to by my sister and I as a "greasy cheesy" because as you ate it, it was so juicy it would run down your arms. But man it was delicious. Siloam lost a great cafe when it closed...Uncle Richard, you will be missed by many people... Rest in Peace...
