“ i remember when me, Savannah, and Nicky were all fighting over who was going to be the pink chipmunk in a dancing fest. so uncle Ricky put on a sheet to look like a dress and came over to us and said he was going to be the pink chipmunk. he ended up dancing with us for over an hour around the end he did a twirl and his sheet fell off and he quickly covered his chest like he was embarrassed. he screamed "DON'T LOOK AT ME, IM NAKED" i died laughing. i wish i could have him in more of my dances he taught me so much. i love you uncle Ricky and i miss you more than you can imagine. you were one of the biggest influences in my life and i thank you for the little secrets you used to whisper to me. R.I.P uncle Ricky. and don't have too much fun up there you might just be sent back!!!!!! and i don't think aunt Tina could handle a couple more years of you... so behave.

“ Although I did not know Ricky very long, he instantaneously treated me as a friend and made me think of him as one as well. The memories of Ricky and myself are few but ones that will never be forgotten. He took me into his home and life when I had nowhere else to go, and I cannot be more gratefull for him. He was an amazing friend, father, and husband and will be missed by all that knew him.

“ We wanted to let yens know that Ricky will truely be missed by our family. We consider all of you our family and are here if any of you need anything.

Ricky was an amazing person with an amazing talent of maken anyone and everyone laugh. I know that he gave me plenty of them and was there for me on many diffrent occassions. I remember being pregnant with Davin and goin to the store to get dog food when scott was away at school and he refused to let me carry it to my car he was affraid i was gonna hurt myself or the baby then argued with me cause i locked my car doors lol he made me laugh so hard that day. he has helped Elizabeth with some issues as well and for that i will always be grateful to him. i could go on forever with many more stories like these but i know you guys have alot to read through so ill just say one more thing.

Ricky you are truely missed by our family! You will have a place in our hearts that no one else can take forever! Im truely a happier person for having known you these past few years i only wish there were more of them. May you Rest In Peace my Dear Friend/Family and as Elizabeth said have fun playen with the Angels and with Uncle Jesus! Uncle Ricky I Love You and Miss You!

Love Always

“ Uncle ricky..I have never been close to anyone like you. You gave me the nickname "shortbread". It will stick with me for a lifetime. No matter what my mood was all I had to do was come to you and you would make me smile. You were the one I came to when I needed someone/anyone and I chose you because I knew you would know what to do and how to help me. I love you so very much. There won't be a day that goes by that I won't think about you or look up and know your looking down at all of us and saying "I'm still in your hearts. I am still with each and everyone of you and I love you all". I love you uncle ricky.

“ I am still in shock and my heart is so heavy from the news of losing someone very dear to my heart. Your dad was a very good man who had a heart the size of Texas. He will definately be miss but never forgotten. He is in all of our hearts and the stories we will always have to share will bring laughter to our hearts and smiles on our face. I hate that I am so far away because I wish I was with you all. I love you all very much. Stay strong for each other.... L L L
