“ I will miss this dear man so much. Bob was the most genuine, caring individual. On more than one occasion, he has said exactly what I needed to hear at exactly the time I needed to hear it without ever knowing what I might have been going through or thinking at the time. Truly a messenger for God. Heaven has gained a faithful servant but one that will be truly missed here. Until we meet again, my friend.

“ A few years back when taking nominations for the Gentry Chamber of Commerce Citizen of the Year, someone said to me, "Bob Meyer is the most Christ-like person I have ever met." Everything Bob did showed his love for the Lord and his love for his neighbors. It was an honor to present Bob and Wanda with that award that year - and it was/is a greater honor to call them friends. Rest in peace friend.
