“ Bob was so welcoming and convincing when my wife and I were considering a retirement move to Siloam Springs. He even sold us his house to make it all possible. Our visits, up to the last shortly before Thanksgiving, were always so informative and interesting. Bob and I share an Omaha birthplace, a love of old cars and an affinity for stray cats. A match that made for a good, if brief, friendship. Gary and Kim Goranson

I first met the Gray family in the mid sixties. Bob was quite the salesman. Recently he shared a lot of stories from his past. He will be missed.
