

Robin Rudolph Orcutt

September 7, 1940 - November 7, 2024

Robin Orcutt, beloved wife of sixty-two years to husband Marshall, passed away with dignity and grace the night of November 7, 2024. Her passing was quick, but the loss felt by family and friends will be enduring.

Reared in Ventura County, California, Robin's life took a dramatic turn when she, Marshall and three young children purchased a farm and moved to Alma, Arkansas in 1972. Side by side with her husband, she devoted herself to serving God, home and family.

Almost empty-nesters, Robin and Marshall moved to Siloam Springs, Arkansas in 1988 for semi-retirement. Never compromising her values or forgetting the path that led her here, she continued to love and support her family and friends until her passing.

Robin was preceded in death by parents Max and Gwen Rudolph and brother Derek Rudolph. She is survived by husband Marshall L. Orcutt; siblings Darcy James of Idaho and Paul Rudolph of California; children Dan Orcutt, Molly Orcutt Torres with husband Randy Torres, and Sarah Orcutt; grandchildren John Orcutt, Daniel Orcutt, Allison Torres Gooderl, David Orcutt, Christian Torres and Marshall Orcutt; great-grandson Graham Gooderl.

A memorial service in Robin's honor will be Tuesday, November 26, 2024, at 4:00 pm, First Presbyterian Church, 302 North Maxwell Street, Siloam Springs, Arkansas.

In lieu of flowers, please consider donating to Gideons International, PO Box 273, Siloam Springs, AR 72761 or go to sendtheword.org

“ The many times she greeted me over the years I encountered Christ...not to mention when she gracefully directed our wedding 34 years ago. What a dear woman. I'm so sorry Marshall that you had to experience losing her. In Christ, John Lasater

“ Robin was a picture of hospitality and grace. She was always bustling about in serving others, not in an ostentatious way, but rather a humble one. I am grateful for the years I got to know her at Siloam Springs Bible Church and look forward to one day seeing her again as we serve our Savior, Jesus Christ in heaven.

I met Marshall far before I met Robin. But I liked Robin from the moment I met her. Straight forward, no nonsense, generous and very thoughtful.

Once I had asked about her vanilla strawberry hydrangeas and next thing you know I received one from her! I will cherish & nurture it. So sorry for all you family. But your loss is short-lived. She can't come to you but you will go to her! Just a little while.

We met Robin & Marshall while attending college in 1961. They were engaged at that time. Marshall tells the story after their first date he asked if she would go out with him again and she said, "No!" Ronnie & I were just laughing about that! Marshall will have to tell the rest of the story. Robin was such a refined young lady! I admired her from the start. She was such a good cook and so fun to talk to. She was a good "confidante". When we visited Arkansas, we'd stay with them and enjoy her good meals and their fun company! We are so saddened each time we think about her home going because we loved her so much! But happy that it was a quick home going and she's there with The Father! We'll miss you terribly, Robin!
