“Rodney impacted our family in a way that was always positive. He was a role model for all the young people that attended Wesley United Methodist Church. His steadfastness toward his responsibilities was witnessing by example. He always greeted everyone with a smile and never forgot those he loved. He was dedicated to his mother and her wishes. He served his community in a variety of ways. He spent countless hours at Dave's Filling Station where two of our sons, Eric and Jarred, were employed. They loved Rodney and he taught them that all people have value and can reach out to others. You see, Rodney never knew a stranger. He was their special buddy. He was missed when he left the community. Not a Sunday has passed without his name being mentioned. It is with sadness that we regret that no one in his home church knew he was hospitalized. He would have been overwhelmed with the cards that would have been sent to him while he could appreciate receiving them. Our family will be making a memorial contribution to the church that was his home-Wesley United Methodist Church in Trenton, MO. So we thank Rodney, greatest of the Morrison men, for all of his caring, kindness, and the life lessons he taught. Heaven is certainly a better place as he celebrates his new life in Christ.

“ Judd,
Sorry we missed you at the hospital, May 5, 2005. I think Rodney knew who we were and did answer a question that Alan asked. He will be missed by us and all of the Class of '55. It won't be the same without him there. Rodney always had a smile and didn't know a stranger. Knowing him for so many years, Norton through THS, he was an inspiration to the Norton gang.
Our sympathy to you and the family,

“ I first met Rodney when ever I would come to Trenton to visit my grandparents who lived close by. Moved to Trenton during high school. Rodney was someone who always had a smile and a "hi". He'll always be remembered fondly by a lot of people.
