“ We are in Ireland, so have belatedly heard of Ron's death. He was a great customer of ours at Color Mate Photo, and we considered him a friend. It was always fun to run in to him. He will be missed.

“ Virginia,
I was looking at the Wasson web site because my mother just died on Mar. 3rd. I wanted to see if her obituary was posted. When I did, I saw that Ron had passed away. I want to send my sincere condolences to you and your family. I know that this must be such a difficult time for you. Ron and his parents were long time friends of our family. I haven't seen you in years, but we go back a long way. I always remember how kind and sweet you were and so pretty. Please know that many friends care about you and share in your sorrow.

“ *Virginia,
Our heartfelt thoughts and prayers are with you during this very sad time. Having known you and Ron for many years, it's difficult to hear of the loss of childhood friends and classmates. We pray that God will comfort both you and Eric.*

“ I did so much business with Ron, he became my friend, instead of a business associate. We always got a good laugh from a bath room he "lost" in an appraisal he did for me.

“ Virginia,
Our thoughts are with you all. Ron is one of the few men in Siloam Springs that James liked doing business with during our Ravenwood adventure!! We always enjoyed seeing Eric at the airport while he was learning to fly.

And, of course, Ryan loved having you as his 4th grade teacher!!

Our sympathy,

“ It was my privilege and a wonderful experience to office with Ron for some years ('80-85). Ron had been a friend since he was a youngster trying to break into touch football games played by the older guys. His brother, Don and I were friends back then, and I didn't get really well acquainted with Ron until we were adults. It was a pleasure working with him on a couple of real estate deals, and I will remember and cherish for the rest of my life an appreciation for his extreme seriousness coupled with a most wonderful laughter. Eric, thanks for being an office friend when you were younger, and my best wishes go out to you and to your mother, Virginia, in your loss of a fine and respected father and husband.

“ Our heartfelt sympathy to his family. We enjoyed many a conversation about the appraisal business and we always knew we could trust Ron to be open and truthful. He encouraged us and I admired him for his high ethical standard.
