

Ronald Gene Stanley

August 28, 1948 - December 15, 2013

Ronald Gene Stanley, 65, of Siloam Springs, Arkansas, died December 15, 2013, at Siloam Springs Regional Hospital. Born August 28, 1948, in Watts, Oklahoma, he was the son of Elmer Stanley and Marie Stevens Stanley. He was an Army veteran of the Vietnam War and served in two tours in Vietnam. He was a service technician.

He was preceded in death by his parents; three brothers; and two sisters.

Survivors include two sons, Dusty Stanley and wife Alicia and Shane Stanley and wife Erin, all of Elkins, Arkansas; one granddaughter, Sydra Stanley; one brother, Rick Stanley of Ooligah, Oklahoma; and one sister, Margie Shook of Westville, Oklahoma.

Graveside services will be 11:00 a.m., Wednesday, December 18, 2013, at Baptist Mission Cemetery, Westville, Oklahoma, with Jim Beavers officiating.

Cemetery Details

Baptist Mission Cemetery

Baptist Mission Cemetery
Westville, OK 74965

Previous Events

Graveside Service

DEC 18. 11:00 AM (CT)

Baptist Mission Cemetery
Baptist Mission Cemetery
Westville, OK 74965

Tribute Wall

TH

“ I have fond memories of times I visited Ron & Edie in Topeka, Kansas. Dusty and Shane were small, and I was their teenage aunt who came to spend summers there. Ron worked at the lumber company and came home every day for lunch. Edie cooked a huge lunch of all kinds of wonderful foods like fried chicken, pork chops, and other mouth-watering meals. I always opted for a bologna sandwich. Ron couldn't believe I would pass up that wonderful meal for a bologna sandwich! My prayers are with you Dusty, Shane, Alicia, Erin, and Sydra. I love you!
--Thea

Thea Hughes - December 17, 2013 at 09:28 AM

KB

Rip Ron

Kym bolingrt - September 28, 2016 at 05:49 PM