It's ok to fall apart sometimes. Tacos fall apart and we still love them.

“ Ron moved in with his mom - which happened to be the other half of my duplex. He was a quiet guy, but always friendly. After getting to know him, I found out what a very good guy he was. He'd do anything for someone if he could - regardless what he was going thru. He did a HUGE cookout one night, invited ALL neighbors and made plates for people that couldn't come. He had his truck backed up so we could sit and chill and had music! Just a great griller and person! My mom called him tomato Ron as he grew such amazing fresh tomatoes! Betty, Bryer and family - my heart breaks for y'all and know what a special man he was! Ron I will miss you greatly and I'm sorry for us left here but so glad you're no longer suffering! Fly high with those beautiful angel wings you now have. God bless!
