“ Bernie, Kat forwarded your email along to me. I'm so sorry to know of your loss. As I read through a few of the tributes, I got a feeling of the effect she had on other's lives and often it was the smallest things that had the most profound impact. It must be wonderful to read the legacy of kindness she left behind.

Love, Mary

“ I have such fond memories of your family when we all lived on Vine St. We had great times getting together with you and the Colemans. Rose had a great sense of humor. Even though its been quite awhile, those memories are still very vivid. It was nice to see you at the Red Horse Inn a few years ago. As we celebrate this Easter holiday, you will be remembered in my prayers.

“ I wish we could do a last-minute switch so we could be there for the funeral. I remember how great she always was with all our juvenile hijinks (you too, Art. You two were the coolest) & how the door was always open. She was my second mom & I will always be richer for that. Carolyn & I have you all in our prayers & we send you our love & sympathy. God be with you in this difficult time. Judd

“ Mr. Quell, Bernie, Marie and Chyle,

So sorry to see Rose's obit on the Evening News web site. I will always remeber her as the one lady in the neighborhood that never lost her temper. Or at least the one we never saw lose it!

I will be there in spirit and prayer with all of you.

*Sincerely,
Tom Rimer*
